AO 245C (Rev. 02/18) Amended Judgment in a Criminal Case Siber SAC Supervised Release 0-KMW Document 261 Filed 12/18/18 Page 5 of 8

DEFENDANT: MARIA SOLY ALMONTE CASE NUMBER: S2 16 CR 670 (KMW)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and 2. when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from 3. the court or the probation officer.
- You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer. 4.
- You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living 5. arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer 6. to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from 7. doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that 10. was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without 11. first getting the permission of the court.
- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may 12. require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision. 13.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The standard and mandatory conditions of supervised release will apply, along with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall participate in an outpatient program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse treatment provider, as approved by the probation officer. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

The defendant shall participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered not covered by third-party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the health care provider.

The defendant shall submit her person, residence, place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under his control to a search, on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program administered by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office advance notification of any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected device(s) that will be used during the term of supervision and that can access the Internet. The U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install any application as necessary to survey all activity on computer(s) or connected device(s) owned or operated by the defendant. The defendant may be required to pay the cost of monitoring services at the monthly rate provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The rate and payment schedule are subject to periodic adjustments by the U.S. Probation Office. The U.S. Probation Office shall be notified via electronic transmission of impermissible/suspicious activity or communications occurring on such computer or connected device, consistent with the computer monitoring policy in effect by the probation office. As triggered by impermissible/suspicious activity, the defendant shall consent to and cooperate with unannounced examinations of any computer equipment owned or used by the defendant. This examination shall include but is not limited to retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s), connected device(s), storage media, and any internal or external peripherals, and may involve removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection.

The defendant must not have contact with the victims in this case, except for blood relatives. This includes any physical, visual, written or telephonic contact with such persons. Additionally, you must not directly cause or encourage anyone else to have such contact with the victims.

The defendant must not have deliberate contact with any child under 18 years of age, except for blood relatives, unless approved by the probation department. You must not loiter within 100 feet of schoolyards, playgrounds, arcades, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of her residence.
